

THE RIGHT TO EDUCATE
MARYCHU E. MANAGUIT

Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

The human has the right to educate. Children are the first must receive the care and aid they need, particularly with regard to education, including religious and moral education. The steps must be taken from their parents. All measures must be taken, if necessary, with the consent of their parents or those responsible for them.