

HUMAN RIGHTS;PRISONEERS

RICHAEL L. MEDIONA

SCHOOL OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

UNIVERSIDAD DE ZAMBOANGA

ZAMBAONGA CITY,PHILIPPINES

The treatment towards prisoners either allegations contained to decide by an inmate in a state prison, about the treatment of the prisoners on” cruel and unusual punishment.

A prisoners appeals from a dismissal of his complain without a living by the district, because of this complain brought under Civil Right Act and seeking an injunctions and damages, the complained on behalf of the defendant, place the right in the solitary confinement of the prison for an alleged violation of a prison regulation.

We have so far, analyzed the process by which the prisoner behavior develops and the influence that turn an individual into criminality rather than conventional. We should properly be treated, reference both to his present integration of a prison and to his proceeding experiences, may offer his conduct, changes in a attitude and conduct have occurred.

A prisoners includes the processes of making laws or breaking laws, and reacting towards some unified sequence of punishment or other treatment or by prevention.

Not all the prisoners commit crime, but some people innocent. We have a rule to follow and law to respect of what violent he/she want to revenges, until he escape in the prison. That’s why government must evaluate the rule. Some prisoners realize that loneliness and so hard inside the jail.