We all know that peace begin to all human being, we are the one who are doing peace. We must do this peace so that we cannot have any conflict or problem to other person. Peace is important for a meaningful life together.

Peace must begin with us through quite a serious being's. We must understand one another, we should cooperate one another to have peaceful living.

Peace will exist if we will cooperate one another by helping hand in hand. We must love one another and live as one family in this world.
