Peace comes from LOVE and UNDERSTANDING. All of us wanted to have peace. So, how do we attain peace? We have to shoe love and respect to each other. We were created equally. Therefore, there is no reason for us to fight temper to an individual.

Lately, I've heard about my mother and our neighbor having a misunderstanding just because of money. It seems that they are trying to get everything from my mother. It happens many times for us in the same thing. There are people like my mother, sometimes she decided to give everything what they want just to avoid any conflict. That is why, peace is very important to us, especially in relationship with somebody that is truly honest to you, you have to avoid any misunderstanding so that you cannot easily break your friendship or nay relationship in a short period of time.

Let us now unite for the betterment of the world and maintain peaceful. Let us help each other, care for each other, love each other, and understand each other to strengthen our relationship with every individual and to think or our good future and the new development or improvement to the world. Let us remain be patient to attain PEACE.
