Our mother earth is a wonderful place where people live. Everything around us is given by our mother earth one example is the forest where humans get some fruits and food. But our forest now is in danger the humans is the one who destroying our forest by cutting trees, burn the trees and getting some animals to eat or putting in the zoo. Mother Earth is a living being in the universe that concentrates energy and life, while giving shelter and life to all without asking anything in return, she is the past, present and future; this is our relationship with mother earth. We have lived coexistence with her for thousands of years, with our wisdom and cosmic spirituality linked to nature. However, the economic models promoted and forced by industrialized countries that promote exploitation and wealth accumulation have radically transformed our relationship with mother earth. We must assert that climate is one of the consequences of this irrational logic of life that we must change.

The aggression towards Mother Earth and the repeated assaults and violations against our soils, air, forest, rivers, lakes, biodiversity, and the cosmos are assaults against us. Before, we used to ask for permission for everything. Now, coming from developed countries, it is pressured that Mother Earth must ask us for permission. Our territories are not respected, particularly those of peoples in voluntary isolation or initial contact, and we suffer the most terrible aggression since colonization only to facilitated the entry of markets and extractive industries. We recognize that Indigenous Peoples and the rest of the world live in a general age of crises: environment, energy, food, financial, ethical, among others, as a consequence of policies and attitudes from racist and exclusionary states. We want to convey that at the
