Each one of us has something special that makes us uniquely who we are. Discovering, recording and sharing our gifts gives us a purpose greater than ourselves and connect us to our community. The World needs Me? Help us do just that. Delight in who you are, because the world really does need you.

The ways to help save mother earth would be recycle. Keep your some and your lights off. Plant more plants. Don't use so much harmful fumes like hairspray and cleaning tools.
