

Human Rights on Election

Student
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

We all know that all people had the right to vote, because we have this right to vote. Last election there is some candidate who is buying their votes and also some people are getting that amount in order to have money but they didn't know their rights were already violated by those evil person. The importance of this we all have the right to vote.