

THE EFFECTS OF CORRUPTION TO EDUCATION

Student
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Human rights of education some government school they have a lack of school supplies, the students will sacrifice because they must have each of them have their own book to review their lessons in their particular subject but school did not provide a textbook in every students, the students could not study or review their lessons.

As a student the government must make an action of this problem because the government has their responsibility of this, they must provide the needs of students such as textbook and other school supply so that the students will not sacrifice to their studies.
