Here in our place, our country, Justice is really hard to attain, many people are seeking for truth but only few are granted and the other suffered from the injustice given to those who are victims. Many people are suffering from such crimes that are happening anywhere in our country nobody know where and when but if this things do happen many people will die, especially when terrorist and bombing incident happen, this things are not incident it is made by man. People who like others to suffer but where they are now roaming around in our town, moving to one place to another continuing doing such crimes again and again when will be the justice be given and peace will remain as it is.

Here in our place in Mindanao, it is no longer a place for people to live but there are still some places that are safe. Most of our problems here which give public alarm like terrorism, bombing and kidnapping incident, people are killing people where is the justice that are supposed to control the crime and also solving it, giving fair judgment to each and everyone, equality must be preserved. Where is it now? Where is the justice that many of the victims looking, it seems like the word “justice” is just a mere word that many people says justice most be preserve. How can we stop this kind of incident to happen if the justice is not given to us people? How can word “ justice” will acted as a real justice?
