

Human Rights Violation
Extra- Judicial Killing

Sermina M. Appal
School of Criminal Justice
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Maguindanao massacre is an example of Judicial Killing. This is a crime behind justice, it is so hurt for the victim of the crime because of justice that was hidden. As time passing by, the relatives of victims cannot sleep and not comfortable for whatever they do unless their rights will be shown as a justice of the crime happen. As a human being we have our right to be done in every crime if it is took place in our community for us to show the fairness as a person because we are not an animal that we can kill them anytime as we want and leave it as nothing. There are so many lives that lost during the Maguindanao massacre. This is a serious matter because death leads and emotional feelings especially for the relatives of victims. They cannot just stay unless they can't cure the pain that they felt and it will just be cured by the justice they need it so much. There are so many abuses happened now, justice are only for the person who are rich because they can afford to buy the justice like the Ampatuan they are rich person in Maguindanao, most of their family are in the government. They were not afraid to kill because of their money. We need to prove it, that's why Ampatuan until now the case still unclosed even though they have so many evidences that tells that Ampatuan is guilty.