

ESSAYS ON HUMAN RIGHTS

1. Human Rights for belief Religion

-Every Human Being has the Right to praise their God and free to believe in their Religion and it should be respect by others.

2. Human Rights from Self-Discrimination

-Every person has the Right to be respect by other people. God create us in his own way of what is our physical or mental look. If we discriminate others, we also discriminate the God.

3. Human Rights for Privacy

-In every person has the privacy in their life and not to interfering into the Lives of others and also includes the right to be Alone.

4. Human Rights for Deprived the Life of others

-It includes the deprivation of economic Lives to earn for a living and earn to sustained daily requirements in order to live progressively in a society.

5. Human Rights for Election

-This is Political rights every citizen in civilized society to freely practice the essence of democracy to avail to come up with and just and human society. Election is one of the processes in democratic life and this is classified as human Right of a person with political colour that no one has the right to deprived it from him because this is also a constitutional Right as citizen of the Republic.

-The Right of suffrage is guarantee Right of every people in every democratic country to be able to fully appreciate the concept of what participatory and exercisable in what we called Election.

-Election is a solemn duty of every citizen and also civil, Political and universal Right of every people because this is only means by which they put choose a leader, Representative to the legislative, And election is also a weapon available to the citizen to be use against in changing leadership in the government through so called recall or an election to deprived a leader with a new one. Therefore any attempt from the government or in its instrumentalist like in national police and military is a violation of human rights as a freedom of choice.

6. Human Rights for Police Brutality

- Almost without limit as to defining the term human rights since the issue has become a universal one, because it includes every person and human being in this world. Human Rights cover a wide spectrum of coverage as far as rights of a person as a natural being. In a particular society where he is, his right involves civil, political, economic, social, and cultural.

-For instance, the right to be protected from harassment and police brutality and forms of acts endangering his life from possible criminality; and equal opportunity to avail the services of the law for his security are parts and among the civil as well as political Rights of a person which is in effect a Human right.

-Police Brutality is created by both the victims and the actor, as the same is instigated by the non-cooperation of the victims to give information required from him by the investigation during a custodial investigation. In like manner, the investigating officer employs the inhumane act against the victim out of his own volition he being in authorities who just take the situation for fun. This is the greatest danger since police will take upon the power into their own hands hiding behind the colour of their uniform and authority as a peace officer. Is a fact, and many of our citizen fall Frey and victims into this form of Human Rights violation.
