This part about the human right we say that we are free what we want to our life. Meaning we can do everything like when we have more families like to our brother Islam they can make more because they have a rights to do it bit our government make a law that every families will get at least two children ,but it is unfair because we are the one to bold it to make a perfect person.

Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the strengthening of respect for human .ability to realize their right to a decent standard of living. The possibility of a rules reaction to a ... of Human Rights, as we adopted in 1948, acknowledges the right to health as a component of "a standard of living ... as a Human Right trainable standard away reaction.
