The world is now awakening from the evil. The evil of a man that will lead to the world of destruction. The war that may result of killing innocent individuals. Years have already passed, we could easily tell other s about the effect of it on our life.

World peace is what we need. It is what we seek from the past. War from different places, tribe, organizations and even wealth should end in order to attain and lived on our ideal world. An ideal world with freedom, happiness and peace.
