Violence, hatred and conflicts, these are just some of the many reasons why war begins. Peace is the opposite of war. Nowadays, many individuals wonder how this peace can be achieved. But the question is, is peace really possible to achieved? How will all nations experience world peace?

World peace is all about the freedom, happiness and non-violence advocacy within a nation or between people here on earth. It is through cooperating willingly with other people and by voluntarily do movements that will prevent war to arise are just some of the keys to achieve the kind of peace that all people needs. Such as, social movements that promote and seek to start peace and to end all the war present in our world today. People also advice that world peace can only be achieved if we first establish peace within our minds, and also some say that through love towards all the creation of God is the way to achieved peace. Through unity of one nation, the being oneness of all can also be a way. World peace is achievable when there is no longer conflict. Everyone deserved to attain love, justice and most specially the peace. Let us not stop hoping and still always remember to never stop moving to attain the peace we need. People are smart enough to know how peace can be achieved. Lots of studies, articles, books, poems and even to songs shows how peace can be attain but still we don't have it.

Even if with different nationalities, religions, faiths and believes, let us learn to destroy the boundaries that make the peace impossible to enter in our world. Let us bring down the war and give peace the honor to rule. It is maybe hard but let us give peace a chance.
