World Peace

Sherlynn A. Lappang
Bachelor of Science in Nursing
School of Allied and Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Nowadays, conflicts between nations and religions are getting worst. Many leaders communicate for peace but hate, jealousy, lack of love and understanding does not give them peace. All of us want to have world peace and end the sufferings we experience right now. We should start it in our homes and family and the community around us. World peace is not that impossible to attain id we want it sincerely.