

World Peace

Student

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

School of Allied and Medicine

Universidad de Zamboanga

Zamboanga City, Philippines

Peace is very essential especially for the development of every country. Peace can lead to a better understanding. People can have a chance to express their ideas in different ways. Peace must begin in each and one of us. If we have peace within us, it could easy to interact with others.

The presence of peace in the world can lead for common understanding, unity, and able to accept every culture and respect each other's right, then we can have a better environment and good nature.