

CHILD MOLESTATION
By: Anjeanette S. Akil
BS NURSING
School of Allied Medicine
Universidad De Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Every one of us is equal and should be treated equally. Girl or boy, rich or poor, adult or child, in terms of rights we are all the same. Especially for the children, we should treat them the way they should be treated, loved and cared. We should be their role model, the one who should guide them and provide them the rights they have. But it's sad to say that some of us are the once who violates this rights. Child molestation now days are one of our problems. Child molestation is a crime involving a range of indecent or sexual activities between an adult and a child, usually under the age

Regardless of the terminology, it is illegal for an adult to touch any portion of a child's body with a "lewd and lascivious" intent. Usually, consent is not a matter of consideration, and is not available as a defense to a charge of child molestation. Even in cases where it can be proven that the minor victim was a willing participant, a sex act or improper touching is still a crime because children cannot legally consent to anything. Criminal penalties are severe for those convicted of child molestation. So all we can do is to help those victims of this violation, on the other hand they deserve to be protected. Let's just pray and help them recover, with all the best that we can do.