

Human Rights

Mathew C. Librero
School of Allied Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

We all know that every mistake. We have the right to speak, to show the truth. But now a days the terms of rights have a some other definition. If we have no money and no power, we have no rights to speak the truth. I hope the government will open there eyes and heart, of what is really the problem of every citizen. And therefore we have a balance humans rights.