The one responsible for making a Human is somewhat called “person”. Each of us has our own rights, it is the right of each of us not to be abused or discriminated but to be respected as a Human or a person. Human Rights is one of the biggest laws in our country and those who would break it by performing certain actions shall be imprisoned.

Our rights are among us everyday, it is the reason why we tend to accomplish to do our daily tasks. It is the basic rights and freedoms that all humans should be guaranteed, such as the right to life and liberty, freedom of thought and expression, and equality before the law.
