Human right means the right of all people to live in peace, without fear. If we will treat us self equal to other people and have freedom to each other we will have a great community and good government. Everyone has a right to peaceful coexistence, the basic personal freedoms, the alleviation of suffering, and the opportunity to lead a productive life. Human Rights for everyone is the necessary foundation upon which all of us may build a world where everybody may live in peace and serenity and plenty. Without human rights we will have a small hope to make peace each other. Peace can only last where human rights are respected, where the people are fed, and where individuals and nations are free.
