

Human Rights

SORAYA L. LIBO-ON

College of Information Technology and Technical Education
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

In a point of view human rights are those rights that are being possesses and acquire by every one of us. We must have the privilege to gain more knowledge about this. To know one's privacy and right to life is one way of knowing more about human rights. Rights is something our freedoms to do things which being a human should imposed to do it. Rights and freedoms of individual is in the law. Yes, we have our own rights and freedom. However, no one is above the law. What rights and freedoms bring us is to put limitations. Our rights are something that improve us and mould us into being. Human rights are very essential as a citizenship of one's country to have a privilege of one individual to attain of what must as a being.