

WORLD PEACE

OMAR, SITTI NUR-AINI P.

School of Allied Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

First and foremost, peace is the most important to all of us, because if our country has no peace at all, how would earth exist? There would no good things will happen if we would undergo war or insecurities. What is important is to seek a peace or a world peace and love each other for what they are and what we are in our country.

If we love each other we would have done good things in our country without making any troubles to every individual that will cause troubles for entire world. Therefore, we must practice how to be a good leadership not only for everyone but for entire world.