World peace! If we heard the word world peace what comes first in our mind? There are so many questions that we want an immediate answer. Like well it ever be attained? When? Is it possible?

The word future in world peace can't be predicted but we, as many people do have their own theory. I believe that world peace will never be attained, because it's just an idea created by our own emotion of hope. Others also believe that we can't attain it if we are just united and we will have more patience to prevent the conflict.

We have to bear in mind that the unity of nations will produce progress and economic development so that all nations will be living in complete peace and free to do what we want.
